RIDE ON!

The holidays are here...

For a little dose of heartwarming holiday inspiration...
Check out this modern-day Tiny Tim story here.

We experienced our own miracle here at Ride this year for which we are very grateful, more on the blog.

"If you can dream it, find the right people, find the resources, it can be done."

In case the speed of the year-end approaching doesn't take your breath away, check out this video, featuring Sam Schmidt driving a 2016 Corvette Z06... talk about breakneck (pun intended) speeds!

Seating solutions for the smallest among us...

The Ride Forward Cushion provides comfort and skin protection while controlling position for improved balance. It is available in sizes as small as 10 x 10" with a contour specially optimized for the pediatric pelvis.

The Java Decaf Back accurately fits both the trunk and pelvis for support, comfort and enhanced mobility. Adjustable back angle and personalized contour at pelvis helps provide balanced support and freedom of movement. The Back is designed to accommodate significant growth and meets motor vehicle safety requirements.
