- Beautifully animated and so touching, with a wordless and universal message... watch this academy-award nominated short film, "Ian, A Moving Story," about determination and inclusion here.
- Meanwhile, late scientist Stephen Hawking's wheelchair sold for $393,000 at auction. Proceeds will go to charity.

RideWorks pro tip:

Slow your pace, scan the base!

Did you know? The front and sides of the colored stripe on the shape capture base need to be visible in the RideWorks scan to determine the orientation of the cushion. Without this information, we can't accurately fabricate the cushion.
