The only products, which may be billed using code E2624, are those products for which the Pricing, Data Analysis, and Coding (PDAC) contractor has made a written coding verification. A Product Classification List with products which have received a coding verification can be found on the PDAC website (www.dmepdac.com).

There is no specific coverage policy for the cushion cover (E2619); it can only be billed as a replacement.
Appropriate User:

Examples of an appropriate user of the Java Cushion:

- Has mild to moderate asymmetry of the pelvis & lower extremities that need to be accommodated or corrected
- May require more stability for such activities as transfers while maintaining protection under the coccygeal and IT areas

Helpful Tips:

- Even if the end-user has a qualifying diagnosis, they still must meet the other portion of the coverage criteria (i.e. significant postural asymmetry or inability to weight shift); the diagnosis alone does not qualify the client.
- The cushion cover (E2619) cannot be billed separately when the cushion itself is being billed. This is a replacement only billable code.
