
Spring debut: a new Custom Cushion option

We were at the International Seating Symposium in Pittsburgh last week helping to educate clinicians and providers on Ride products, including a new softer custom cushion option, the Ride Custom AccuSoft Cushion.

Seating spring cleaning refresher

Owner's manuals with cleaning instructions for every Ride product are available online. Navigate to the page for your specific product, scroll down, then click on the Literature tab. There you'll find the document in .pdf form.

Inspired to garden?

Growing a container garden in a small space, planting flowers, or picking fresh herbs for a culinary creation are all possible when gardening from a wheelchair. The Reeve Foundation offers an overview, strategies, and additional resources here.

On a larger scale, California's spring super bloom phenomenon is visible from space! Check out the results of the very wet winter on video here, plus a scientific explanation and more photos here.

“Spring won't let me stay in this house any longer!
I must get out and breathe the air deeply again.”

— Gustave Mahler (Austrian composer, 1860-1911)
