

How to:

Orient your scan to best advantage

Scanning with RideWorks® can be done with the iPad held horizontally — in the landscape position or vertically — in the portrait position.

That's right! If a shape is tall, it is helpful to hold the iPad vertically when scanning to capture the top of the shape. If the shape is wide, the horizontal method works best.

Either way works... so use orientation to your advantage!

